Of the following, retention of business records should be PRIMARILY based on:
A. past litigation.
B. regulatory and legal requirements.
C. periodic vulnerability assessment.
D. device storage capacity and longevity.
Answer: B
Explanation:
Explanation
Retention of business records is a business requirement that must consider regulatory and legal requirements based on geographic location and industry. Options A and C are important elements for making the decision, but the primary driver is the legal and regulatory requirements that need to be followed by all companies.
Record retention may take into consideration past litigation, but it should not be the primary decision factor.
